About Us

We engage in a broad range of strategies that promote health, education, and welfare development. We provide charitable and humanitarian services, offer transitional housing and engage in activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient for the enrichment of life.

- 1 We offer and support programs that result in happier and healthier living.
- 2 We engage, support, and advance the cause of economic equity.
- 3 We work to break down barriers to educational and career success for people of color.

Our Advantages

With Nehemiah, efforts to reduce inequalities can be made more responsive to demands, inclusive, sustainable, and cost-effective than with traditional centrally-led programs, resulting in immediate and lasting results. Nehemiah offers three community development approaches:

- 1 Community Approach—Uses tools to integrate the community into various development programs.
- 2 Information Self-help Approach—Empowers families economically and socially to live a life of hope and dignity.
- 3 Special Purpose, Problem-solving Approach—Strategize to identify, define, and resolve problems.

Our Services

Our services include screening and assessment referrals for financial assistance, fuel assistance, and SNAP benefits, applications for affordable housing programs, emotional and mental health referrals, crisis intervention, and advocacy support.

Creative ideas

Benefit low and moderate income persons.

Management

Meet community development needs having a particular urgency.

Our Support

Ensure services to provide for basic human needs, such as shelter, food, and health services.

Our Mission

We work with underserved communities to bring about equitable advances in healthcare, education, and welfare opportunities, an equitable opportunity pathway to health and prosperity for humanity.

- 1 We work to connect people to resources and services for treatment and recovery.
- 2 We work with stakeholders and service providers to create strong community-based collaborative programs.
- 3 We support physical and mental health programs that offer counseling, therapy, rehabilitation.
- 4 We aid in the prevention or elimination of slums and blight.
